To Whom This May Concern:

I am writing to express my enthusiastic support for Jeremiah Jenkins, a second-year student at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University, who is applying for your esteemed scholarship(s). I am his Academic Advisor here at North Carolina A&T State University and have had the pleasure of advising Jeremiah academically and socially since his arrival here on campus.

Jeremiah is undoubtedly one of the strongest second year students I have had the pleasure of advising here at North Carolina A&T State University. He has great potential, and I am proud to be his Academic Advisor. He has shown tremendous personal growth, reflected in his academic studies and extra-curricular participation. He maintains an impressive 3.0 GPA while lending his voice and expertise in multiple group work projects. Just to name a few, some of his most recent projects include working with the Association of Computing Machinery, and he serves as a member for the National Society of Black Engineers (NSBE) and AGGIE Men.

While creating a relationship with Jeremiah, I have experienced someone who shows up earlier than asked, works hard, and carries himself politely and respectfully. In addition, Jeremiah is a devout student who has always presented himself with level-headedness and refinement. Jeremiah has a great work ethic. He is a determined, hard worker who never gives up on himself. He has shown determination to find his place here on campus and to speak up more by applying to several student organizations. I had the pleasure of hearing him talk about his various volunteer opportunities, including working with the Middle College here at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University and Aggie Day of Service. Jeremiah is bound and determined to succeed at whatever he tries to accomplish. He is personable, diligent in his work product, and has strong communication skills.

I have no reservations about giving Mr. Jenkins a high student and person rating. His strong moral character, indefatigable will, and a clear sense of purpose makes him a great candidate for your esteemed scholarship(s). Please do not hesitate to contact me with any requests or questions.

Best,
